DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY

The complete line with one tap gives new possibilities to enhance the classic look of the most widespread dispense towers and move the design to the next level.

NAKED, NAKED ONE DISPENSE TOWERS

NUMBER OF TAPS 1

The Naked series of dispensing towers are characterized by clean curves in full stainless steel design without a single weld. The complete line with one tap gives new possibilities to enhance the classic look of the most widespread dispense towers and move the design to the next level. Especially are suitable for modern areas of bars or restaurants and also where there is not much space. To underline the design, the used middle pole dews on the surface thanks to the recirculation, creating a unique look of a really chilled beer. The surface treatment is possible in polished stainless steel or sandblasting.

^ RECIRCULATION

The unique design of the LINDR NAKED dispense TOWERS ensures the cooling of the beverage up to the tap with a well-insulated coil.

< PRESENTATION OPTIONS

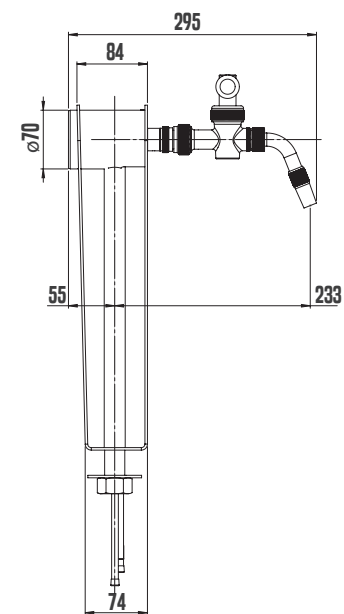

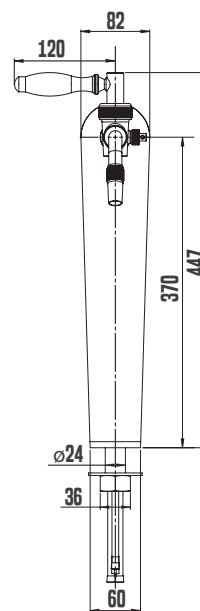

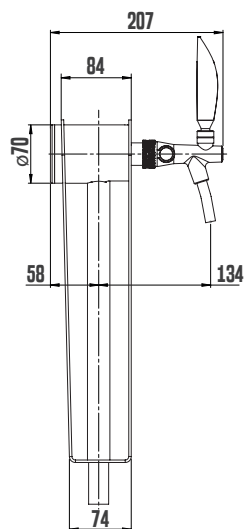

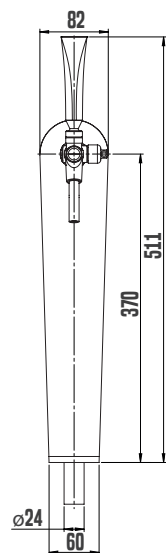

Each tower allows the placement of a wooden medallion or backlit advertisement with its own logo.
